

How to get 90+ percentile in ELITMUS!!!

Saturday, December 7, 2013

Hi friends in this post (FAQ's) i am sharing some questions related to Elitmus Exam/ Result/ Score/ Syllabus asked by readers and their answers given by me, which i think will help most of you guys in resolving your queries too.

In case you have missed my previous two posts, find below the links.
And here is the link of next post dedicated to "Calculation/Estimation of Overall Percentile"

Question: Regarding "What is the best time to give Elitmus Exam???"

vivek<sup>[2]</sup>November 7, 2013 at 2:01 AM hello i have not finished with my BE ... studying in 7th Semester
my 10th % are 77.2 nd 12th % are 78.4
im planning to give ph test...
shall i??
or i should give aftr completion of BE

Answer:

Akhilesh Chandra Bhatt<sup>[3]</sup>November 10, 2013 at 6:31 PM
Hi Vivek, As elitmus takes around 1 month to get you interview calls once you apply for the jobs, i would suggest you to give Elitmus exam somewhere Around April/May (your 8th Sem)... So that by the time your BE is complete you will get interview calls...so no waiting :)

So Prepare Well... i mean really well coz you got time.... and go for it :)

Best Wishes :)(:

Question: Regarding Percentile

Ashu Rawat<sup>[4]</sup>July 2, 2013 at 2:39 AM out of 20 questions if i am attempting just 5 or 6..this will make 80+ percentile in this??

Answer:

@kh!le$h ch@ndr@ bh@tt<sup>[5]</sup>July 27, 2013 at 12:56 AM

Hi Ashu... I can't figure out which section you are talking about... so i will just answer about all sections :)

- Out of 20 if you are attempting 5-6 in QUANT with accuracy YOU WILL get 90+ percentile.
- Out of 20 if you are attempting 5-6 in Reasoning with accuracy YOU WILL get 80+ percentile.
- Out of 20 if you are attempting 5-6 in Verbal with accuracy YOU WILL get 40+ percentile.

Question:

saba shariff<sup>[6]</sup>July 16, 2013 at 11:03 PM

I have got 92.27 percentile in elitmus

Verbal:95.81

Problem Solving:88.78

Quant:47.57

I'm worried as my quant percentile is less. What are my chances ?

Answer:

@kh!le$h ch@ndr@ bh@tt<sup>[7]</sup>July 27, 2013 at 1:02 AM

Hi Saba... mine percentile was nearly same... and i got call from 4-5 companies :)... So i hope you will get calls too... Generally it takes around 1 or 1 and half month from the day you get your Elitmus Score, to get response for the jobs you have applied... So jusss wait for a while

Question:

manish mayank<sup>[8]</sup>August 27, 2013 at 9:07 AM your tips worked.. Thanx

Btw i have secured 87.2 percentile in my 1st attempt.

But i want to know wats next step from here. How we apply 2 companies. ...?
I mean on its(elitmus)website we see the event date and last apply date...we apply it... no calls watsoever.. thaaah... date is gone...and again a new company ... same cycle..
Do we need to go to bangaloree to company place or we need to wait for the interview calls?
plzzz help in "how to apply" section too !!

Answer:

Grtt job... Congrats :)

and... the process is same... Keep applying for jobs on elitmus... and After a month or so.... you will start getting interview calls...!!

And regarding "Effect of city/place"... i am not sure but.. if you are in Banglore.... your chances for getting calls get increased, coz you must have observed "Interview Location" has always(99%) "Banglore" as Location... but other cities keep varying from Company to Company.... And this is because nearly every company hiring from Elitmus is Banglore Based...!!

Rest...Keep hope alive.. Best wishes :)

Question:

Abhinav<sup>[9]</sup>September 1, 2013 at 8:03 AM

Hi ! Is Negative marking based on single section or entire 3 sections.
For instance, If I answer 1/4th questions wrong in each section, Negative marking starts or If I answer 1/4th of Total questions wrong, negative marking starts.
Please reply. Thanks..

Answer:

@kh!le$h ch@ndr@ bh@tt<sup>[10]</sup>September 8, 2013 at 6:24 AM

Abhinav... negative marking is Section wise.
Better you don't go down that road...(TukkaBaaji/Guessing... ain't gonna workout here) prepare Few topics.. but prepare them so strong that.. you don't miss any question appearing in elitmus.

Remember "Attempt few... But attempted ones must be correct"

Best wishes :)

Question:

rahul kaul<sup>[11]</sup>September 12, 2013 at 11:25 PM

hello sir,

sir first of all thanks for the blog it really helped me when i was giving my elitmus exam coz i knew how much i must attempt to get a respectable %ile thanks for this again.

and sir now that i have given my elitmus i have received my score

verbal-99.28

ps-71.10

quant-79.88

my overall ph is 96.43,Do i stand a good chance sir, thanks

Answer:

@kh!le$h ch@ndr@ bh@tt<sup>[12]</sup>September 13, 2013 at 9:53 AM

Congrats....On scoring such good percentile :)

Your overall Percentile is good, and in addition to that you have scored decent percentile in Quant and Reasoning... So i must say you stand good chance in getting calls... :)

Wait for a month... you'll get calls.

Best Wishes :)

And thanks for appreciation... Seems the purpose of writing this blog is getting fulfilled :)(:

Question:

Jhalak Agarwal<sup>[13]</sup>September 17, 2013 at 9:00 AM

Sir I just got my elitmus score.

Quant - 94.6

Verbal - 87.9

Lr- 89.4

Overall - 96.5

Academic .. 10th - 96.5%

12th - 95%

Prefinal grad - 80.4%

Is submitting my resume enough for applying to the jobs?

Will I have to mention my elitmus score in the resume?

do microsoft, adobe, mcafee recruit final year students ?

Answer:

@kh!le$h ch@ndr@ bh@tt<sup>[14]</sup>September 17, 2013 at 11:08 AM

Heyyyyyy.... You Scored good... Congratss :)

And.... Start applying for jobs, on elitmus... you will start getting calls within a month...!!!

And regarding applying for jobs outside Elitmus, Its always good to "Mention your pHScore" in Resume... coz for sure... it will increase your weightage....AND there are some companies which consider pH Score as one of their selection criteria... So Bindaasss.... Put your score on Resume...

About recruitment from microsoft, adobe... Keep checking their websites... Coz Most Renowned Companies... hire final year students as INTERN... Which in turn...ends up in full time employment...

Best Wishes :)(:

Anurag<sup>[15]</sup>November 10, 2013 at 12:30 AM

I got 97.5 percentile in my first attempt.I really need some tips to score 99+percentile. I deperately need some help.

Answer:

Akhilesh Chandra Bhatt<sup>[16]</sup>November 10, 2013 at 6:15 PM

Whooooaa... Anurag 97.5 is Really good score(if you have scored well in all sections)....

BUT if you still want to go for 99+ percentile.. You can try these things:

- Make sure you are scoring 99+ percentile in Verbal(i.e. 140+ score)
- Try to get 90+ percentile in both quant and reasoning
- Speed and Accuracy will be key in getting such high score so "Practice as much as you can"
- Do "Selective Study" i.e. Select certain topics from Quant which in total can get you a score of 90+ and get mastery in those section so that you don't miss a question from them in exam. Same for reasoning too... Preparing Everything... never gonna work... soooo.....Prepare Smartly... :)

Best Wishes :)(:

Question:

Sandy Sraj<sup>[17]</sup> November 20, 2013 at 3:06 AM

Hi Akhilesh, Can u plz tell me how may questions must be answered corectly in each section..because after reading all the posts,I'm bit confused regarding pHscore rather than getting clarity on it. because some are getting 95+ percentile with around 50 to 70 + in quantz and reasoning..and some scores are less than 80+ after geting 70 to 80+ scores in each section..where does the thing happening..? Plz sir., reply me ASAP.

Thank You.:)

Answer:

Akhilesh Chandra Bhatt<sup>[18]</sup> November 25, 2013 at 8:37 AM

Hi Sandy... Let me simplify this for you as per my understanding(though i am not the one deciding how percentile score is calculated at Elitmus):

- quant 20+ marks >> 50+ percentile
- reasoning 50+ marks >> 80+ percentile
- verbal 100+ marks >>. 90+ percentile so ---->>"at overall score 170+ can get you 85+ percentile" and

----->> Marks in quant and reasoning has Higher VALUE then in verbal..!!!!

so those who get 95+ are the ones scoring good in Quant+Reasoning and Very Good in Verbal....

and those who are getting around 80+ are the ones scroing OK in all three

OR Good in Quant+Reasoing But BAD at verbal

OR Bad in quant+reasoing and Very Good in Verbal.

Hope you get little idea about percentile now :)

Best Wishes :)

Question:

varshila redkar<sup>[19]</sup> April 22, 2013 at 7:24 PM

88.50 percentile in elitmus.... is it good enough to get a job? or should i give another try?

Answer:

@kh!le$h ch@ndr@ bh@tt<sup>[20]</sup> April 26, 2013 at 12:09 PM

Any score above 85 percentile is good enough to get you some calls for job interview "ONLY IF" your sectional percentile is also good(i.e. throughout 65-70 percentile above)... Rest regarding giving another try...If you believe that you can do better than this...( more than 88 ) in next attempt..than... you can go for it.... :) as having score above 90 percentile(with throughout percentile of 65+ above) increases your chances.

(Remember...a score of 80-85 percentile THROUGHOUT is far better than a score of 90 above percentile with having any section with percentile less than 50)

Best wishes :)

Question:

tarun mathur<sup>[21]</sup>June 2, 2013 at 9:41 AM this post is really helpful for elitmus aspirants... it would be really helpful for us if u can tell estimated time required for preparation of this exam..

Answer:

@kh!le$h ch@ndr@ bh@tt<sup>[22]</sup>July 27, 2013 at 12:24 AM

Hi Tarun... It depends upon your potential. In general i must say 20 days are enough for good preparation. And if you are a quick learner and have good command over Apti then, 10 days is all you need.

Good Luck :)

Question:

Dharmaraj Kavatagi<sup>[23]</sup>October 8, 2013 at 6:53 AM sir my score in 10th 87% 12th 47% diploma 77.40% and b.tech 63.54% and 2yr break in education after 12th should i attempt elitmus exam and what percentile in PH test help me getting interview calls?

Answer:

Akhilesh Chandra Bhatt<sup>[24]</sup>October 8, 2013 at 11:24 PM

Dharmaraj, with such academics i am not sure whether u will get interview calls or not....!!!

All i can say is.... if you go for elitmus and Score good percentile... then, whether you get calls or not..... At least you will have pH score to mention in your resume... and i am sure it will give you an extra edge over other candidates in any interview or walk- in...

Best Wishes :)(:

Question:

Abhinav Bharadwaj<sup>[25]</sup>January 5, 2014 at 12:22 AM great blog!! appreciate it sir... i m currently preapring for my ibps speacialist exam which is scheduled on 8th feb,2014 and i ll be taking my e-litmus on 20th feb.!! i have my doubts regarding the topics i should stress upon in quant section while preparing. i have my arun sharma's for all the three sections. should i simply start with LOD-3(LEVEL OF DIFFICULTY-3) questions?

my academics are

10th-89.2, 12th-86.5, b.tech(ece)- 56%(i regret it so deeply now) i feel my grey area is the quant section and my strong area are the verbal skills.

awaiting your kind reply.!!!

Answer:

Akhilesh Chandra Bhatt<sup>[26]</sup>January 8, 2014 at 8:11 AMHi Abhinav... Method for going through Arun Sarma:

- Theory
- Solved Example
- Unsolved question in between topics
- Than... 5-8 Random questions from Section 2 and Section 3

That will do for any Topic...!!!

Best Wishes :):

Thanks for Appreciation ... Hope "The Trick" helps you in your IBPS exam too... :)

Question:

Joychandra Singh<sup>[27]</sup>January 3, 2014 at 8:57 AM hello sir , how are you ? first of all i want to thank you very much for such great information . because of you i got excellent marks in my first attempt . i only made 1 mistake i got tempted in quants section and attempted too much questions .

sir i appeared for the elitmus exam on 22 december and my percentile for english and problem solving is quite good but my quant section is really bad . i got 89 %le in english and 93%le in problem solving but i got only 24 %le in quants . this was my first time and i m thinking of replying again but my query is, even if i reapply it will take some time for the exam and result to get declared again.

so , should i apply for jobs with my current score or should i not ? there are some companies where you will have to wait for interview call for 6 months if you don't get selected for interview . i m thinking if i don't get selected with my score then , i have to wait for 6 months . that's why i m really confused , should i or should i not apply for job ? sir please guide me .

Answer:

Akhilesh Chandra Bhatt<sup>[28]</sup>January 6, 2014 at 8:12 AM

Keep Applying...!!!

Your selection and rejection is Different,..... Getting Interview calls through Elit Score is Different.. Don't Mix them...!!!!

Steps How it Works:

- You apply for the jobs on the basis of Your Score
- You get shortlisted for interview: You will be called for interview

Now here... If after attending the Interview... If you don't get selected... Than only You will face the situation of not applying in the respective company for 4,6..

months(depend upon company to company)

SO..... YOU, APPLYING FOR INTERVIEW GOT NOTHING TO DO WITH NOT GETTING CHANCE TO APPLY AGAIN FOR THE COMPANY... That arises only when YOU GET INTERVIEW CALL AND DON'T GET SELECTED...!!!

So Best Wishes :)(:

And... haan... Hope for the Best.... :)

Question:

Mohammed Rafi<sup>[29]</sup>January 13, 2014 at 5:22 AM

Hi Akhilesh:

My name is Rafi, I scored 81.06 percentile in Verbal, 71.88 in Problem Solving and 42.76 in Quantitative. May I know what my overall percentile could be? And is there any chance of me getting shortlisted for Accenture drive on 18th? My academics are 87% in 10th, 84% in Intermediate and 61% in B.E

Answer:

Akhilesh Chandra Bhatt<sup>[30]</sup>January 13, 2014 at 6:02 AM

Rafi saahab.. your percentile will be somewhere around 75+ which is enough for you to get you interview calls for Accenture and some other companies...

Accenture asks for 70 percentile i Guess...!!

so... Best Wishes :)(:

Question:

Amita Jain<sup>[31]</sup>January 9, 2014 at 11:35 PM

sir, pls tell me ... companies see only overall percentile of elitmus or for each sections like Quant, Reasoning, and english seperately....Amita Jain

Akhilesh Chandra Bhatt<sup>[32]</sup>January 13, 2014 at 6:08 AM

Hi Amita.. I am not sure about this thing... !!!

But to be on safer side.... Try to get at least DECENT marks in all sections... Its quite unlikely that you will get a call on scoring 99 percentile in reasoning and verbal while having 0 in quant...!!!

Best Wishes :)(:

Question:

Amit Das<sup>[33]</sup>January 11, 2014 at 7:24 AM

Sir, my 10th percentile is 82%, 12th percentile is 58%, b.tech percentile is 69% . Is there be any scope for getting calls from companies if I will get good Ph Score in elitmus and please tell me how much I have to score in E-Litmus for getting MNC calls ..... please reply.

Answer:

Akhilesh Chandra Bhatt<sup>[34]</sup>January 13, 2014 at 6:13 AM

You score Good.. you get call... As simple as that.. :)

What's Good score.... Any score above 90 percentile(having Decent marks in all section) ... regarding companies giving interview calls.. its upto so many things.. which i have no idea.. BUT the Bottom Line is "Good PH score" and if you got "good academics" ..... you Stand better chances...!!!

Question:

Vijay Singh<sup>[35]</sup>January 12, 2014 at 2:39 AM i got 45 percentile in verbal

90 in problem solving and 55 in quant

is there any chance of getting calls????

and plz tell how to calculate overall percentile??

Answer:

Akhilesh Chandra Bhatt<sup>[36]</sup>January 13, 2014 at 6:18 AM

Vijay... there are Chances ...but few...!!!

And calculating overall percentile formula..... I guess you have to ask Elitmus for that... I juss gess near around percentile on d basis of observation.. that's it...!! :P
